

YOUR HOUSE IS ON FIRE

Against if Not For

We watched as the media pressed in on Hillary, criticizing her every move and second guessing her intentions. That is still going on—lessened now that she has endorsed Obama at the convention—but she was never going to be the official candidate of the Democratic Party. We think you can count on that as much as you can count on John McCain to act like a Republican should he win the presidency. Point is we can hate what was done to a capable woman but it looks like Obama is the only game in town if you don't want more of the same: attack after attack on women's rights.

Plan to vote, if you don't vote AGAINST McCain four more years in this direction could set women back decades, or more.

From NARL ProChoice America:

Look at McCain's rigid, anti-choice track record. What hasn't he tried to take away from women?

- Birth control? McCain is against women's access to it, and voted more than 20 times to block it.
- Reproductive health care services? McCain doesn't seem to believe in equal access to them. He voted to eliminate Title X and deny millions of women health-care services ranging from birth control to breast cancer screenings.
- The right to choose? McCain won't protect it. In fact, he's voted against choice 125 times out of 130 opportunities since 1983. And he said Roe v. Wade should be overturned!

If Sen. McCain wins the White House, he won't just continue the same anti-choice Bush legacy, he will be an even greater threat to a woman's right to choose than President Bush. McCain's voting record demonstrates he will take every opportunity to deny your mother, your sister, your daughter, or you these basic freedoms.

Join NARAL Pro-Choice America today to help protect the liberties and access to basic health care that McCain would deny women.

...By picking Palin, we now risk having two anti-choice extremists who will push a rigid anti-choice agenda. Any remaining doubts about McCain's extreme anti-choice position should be put to rest when voters learn about the combined anti-choice records of Palin and McCain...

Palin is not just anti-choice, she's opposed to abortion, even in cases of rape or incest. [Juneau Empire, "Abortion Draws Clear Divide in State Races," accessed 8/29/08 and Anchorage Daily News, "Governor's Race: Top contenders meet one last time to debate," 11/03/06.] Palin is also a member of the anti-choice group Feminists for Life.

We can't let McCain-Palin continue George Bush's rigid and extreme anti-choice legacy.
